

BREBEUF - Basketball Learning Skills Assessment for Individuals

Name: _____

Individual Assessment for Team Play

A. Initiative/Resilience (/10) balances student/athlete roles well comes to practice early to maximize reps makes an effort to make practices more intense and efficient is mentally prepared to come off the bench to contribute regardless of playing time steps forward as a leader during drills tries to play through pain and injury in practice and in games brings an intensity that inspires others and is excited to play at all times

B. Communication (/10) makes an effort to communicate with fellow players during games and practices communicates with coach about attendance and injuries has a voice in all drills and warm up exercises body language is positive and poised on the bench attempts to contribute with voice communicates basketball demands to classroom teachers well in advance

C. Collaboration (/10) understands roles on the team offensively and attempts to play within schema trusts other players and coaches to perform their roles plays many positions when asked even when not necessarily main position understands team defensive schemas and fulfills his responsibilities within them plays unselfishly offensively

D. Organization and Responsibility (/10) arrives to practice, games, and tournaments on time remembers uniform, water and shoes is able to consistently arrive to class on time after practice takes responsibility for contributions to the team and is personally accountable for errors

Greatest Strengths

Key Areas For Improvements